

Rabies

Rabies has again become a fact of life in North Carolina since 1990, and in Moore County since 1995 w

Both State and County law requires any dog or cat over the age of four months to be vaccinated against

Rabies is a disease, caused by a virus, that can infect all mammals, including humans. It is transmitted t

Rabies is almost always fatal to animals and people once signs of disease appear. However, immediate

If you have any reason to believe that there has been rabies contact, please immediately contact Anima

For a wealth of information concerning rabies, go to the North Carolina Department of Health and Human Services <http://www.epi.state.nc.us/epi/rabies.html>

